

The Highfield Male Voice Choir

Runcorn, Cheshire

---

Director of Music

The Highfield Male Voice Choir, based in Runcorn, is looking for a dynamic Director of Music to continue to move the choir forward. The ideal candidate will have experience in leading successful male voice choirs, as well as being enthusiastic, musically skilled in a variety of different styles and someone who can inspire the choir to even greater heights. The Highfield has just celebrated its centenary year with a very successful and varied programme of events, including joint concerts with three other male voice choirs. The choir currently has around 50 voices and is gradually expanding as new recruits join.

The choir currently performs a wide variety of different musical styles, from male voice standards, songs from the shows to a range of traditional numbers. The successful candidate would be working alongside our highly skilled accompanists led by Derek Littlemore, whose arrangements of many styles of musical compositions are in use throughout the male voice choir community. The choir rehearses on Tuesday and Friday evenings at Trinity Methodist Church in Halton village, Runcorn.

If you are interested in applying for the above position of Musical Director with the Highfield Male Voice Choir, please send a CV with covering letter to our chairman Marcus Rees at 7, Victoria Avenue, Widnes. Cheshire. WA8 7TJ. Or if you prefer to use email the Highfield have just gone live with a new website which will be greatly expanded during the current months. Find us at <www.highfieldmvc.co.uk>